

SOCIAL LOCATION MADLIBS

I am a _____ (age) year old _____ (cis/trans) _____ (sexual orientation) _____ (gender).

I acknowledge that my world lens is that of a _____ (socioeconomic class)
_____ (education level)
_____ (able-bodied/differently abled/disabled) person with all of the privileges, both earned and unearned, as well as the aspects of marginalization that come with my social location.

The part of my identity that I am the least aware of on a daily basis is _____. The part of my identity that I experience as the most 'emphasized' or 'important' to my family of origin growing up was _____. My identity as a _____ makes me feel discriminated against and the part of my identity that provides me the most privilege is _____.

The piece of my identity that is the most misunderstood by others is _____ and I find my identity as a _____ person the hardest to discuss.

The aspect of my identity that I would like to know more about is _____.

I believe that my identity as a|n _____ is the most beneficial to my clinical work and the aspect of my identity that is the most challenging to my clinical work is _____.